"It is critical to provide the vaccine at churches in the African-American community - there are reasons for mistrust, and a lot of myths out there. I know the importance of the vaccine for getting back to life as normal and work to encourage others."

- Pastor Brenda Tuggle